

ABSTRACT

The present invention relates to a shopping bag which is attachable to a cart for thereby effectively carrying items in a shop, which includes a handle frame 11 having at least two fixing frames 13 attached to each of both handle frames 11 of a shopping bag for thereby fixing the shopping bag 10 to a cart, a coin storing member 15 for storing a coin in the handle frame 11 of a shopping bag which coin is used for unlocking a cart from a locked state, and handle; a Velcro tape 14 which is attached to an upper side of the shopping bag for closing an entrance of the shopping bag 18; and an outer layer pocket 20 for storing items bought.